

Self Profiling Sheet

Name - Ashok Kumawat

Class Roll No - 38

Section - I2

Q.1 Define strengths and weakness each in a sentence.

→ Strength: It is a ability to perform well in a particular area, like problem-solving, communication, or adaptability.

Weakness: It is something that needs improvement, but with effort, it can turn into a strength.

Q.2. In your opinion, what is your greatest weakness?

→ I sometimes overthink things, which slows me down. But I'm working on managing my time better by setting clear priorities.

Q.3. What do people most often criticize about you?

→ Some say I take normal work too seriously, but I feel that's just my way of staying focused.

Q.4. What is the biggest criticism you have received from -

→ Parents: They say I overthink and should trust myself more.

Siblings: They feel I take things too seriously and should relax a bit.

Relatives: They say I should be more social and interact more.

Friends: They joke that I focus too much on work and don't have enough fun.

Teachers: They have told me to speak up more and share my thoughts confidently.

Q.5. What do you find is the most difficult decision and why?

→ I find difficult choosing between different priorities, especially when everything seems important. I try to handle it by thinking about what will have the best long-term outcome.

Q.6 How do you handle failure?

→ Failure does create some stress, but I try to handle it and move forward. I analyze what went wrong, learn from it, and improve myself for the next time.

Q.7. How do you handle success?

→ I take a moment to appreciate it, usually by celebrating with family and friends.

Q.8. How do you view yourself - calm, aggressive, patient, impatient, confident, social - and why?

→ I am generally calm and patient because I think before reacting. But I do get impatient when things slow down unnecessarily or don't go as expected.

Q.9. Who do you compare yourself to and why?

→ I compare myself to my father because he is disciplined and hardworking. I admire his dedication and patience and try to learn from him.

Q.10. What major challenges have you faced so far and how did you handle them?

→ When I went to JNV, a hostel-based government school, in 6th standard, it was a big challenge to stay away from my parents at such a young age. But over time, I got used to it and learned to manage living away from home.

Q.11. What was the biggest compliment you have received so far?

→ Someone once told me I am a quick learner and grasp things easily. They also said I explain concepts clearly and precisely sometimes better than teachers also, which help them understand better. They also appreciate my helping nature.

Q.12. What have you learned from your mistakes?

→ 1. Perfection slows progress focusing on efficiency helps achieve better results.

2. Never wait for the perfect time to start, time is valuable and keeps moving.

3. Taking action and learning along the way is better than overthinking decisions.

Q.13. What motivates you professionally & personally?

→ Professionally: I feel motivated when I learn new things and solve problem. Improving my skills keep me excited about my work.

Personally: My family and friends motivate me. Their belief in me pushes me to do my best.

Q.14. What is your greatest strength?

→ My strength is being adaptable and a quick learner. I analyze situations carefully to find the best possible outcome.

Q.15. How will your strength(s) help you move ahead in life & be successful?

→ Being adaptable and a quick learner helps me adjust to new challenges and grow continuously. By analyzing situations carefully, I can make better decisions and achieve better results.

Q.16. What have you achieved on the basis of your strength(s)?

→ Because of my adaptability and quick learning, I have handled challenges better and improved in many areas. I have earned my parent's trust, made good friends, and gained valuable experiences that help me grow both personally and professionally.